

The Life, Peace & Justice Commission, along with the St. Vincent de Paul Society and the Secular Franciscans of this Diocese, present

An Evening to Learn about Dorothy Day

A complex woman who was a Catholic convert and founder of the Catholic Worker Movement, Dorothy was also a journalist, a social justice advocate, and a staunch peace activist. She is now titled "Servant of God" as the Church has opened the cause of Dorothy's canonization.

Special Guest Speaker for this event is Jeff Korgen, author of the new book, Dorothy Day: Radical Devotion.

Jeff has been instrumental in promoting Dorothy Day's Cause for Canonization
